PROMOTIONS: Today is the Bridgeport vs. New Britain home and home doubleheader presented by DATTCO! Game 1 of the twin bill will be played at 12:00 P.M. in Bridgeport, followed by game 2 in New Britain at 6:35 P.M.! After game 2: FIREWORKS! It is also Scout Campout Night at New Britain Stadium, where scout troops can camp out under the lights in the ballpark!

The Bees: New Britain took an early lead in their game on Thursday night against Southern Maryland, but the Blue Crabs would eventually battle back to get the win. The Bees scored 4 runs in the 1st inning, led by RBI singles from Craig Maddox and Jamar Walton, followed by 2 bases loaded walks. Maddox would then bring another run home with a sacrifice fly in the 2nd, but that would be the last run they scored.

The Opposition: Bridgeport just concluded a brief 3 game road trip to Lancaster, and won 2 of the 3 games to take the series. In each victory they scored 7 runs, with a 7-3 final on Wednesday and a 7-0 win last night. In that 7-0 victory, Bridgeport only allowed

2 Lancaster hits, one in the 2nd inning and another in the 9th inning. Reinier Roibal, Frank DeJulio Jr., Manny Delcarmen and Wander Perez combined for the shutout.

Starting Pitchers – New Britain: LHP Greg Nappo (3-1, 3.48) | Bridgeport: RHP Charles Brewer (8-5, 4.05)

Key to the Game – Early fishing: In their past series against Lancaster, the Bridgeport bullpen has pitched 9 full innings, 8 of them scoreless. The only exception is Zac Grotz allowing 3 runs in the 9th inning on Wednesday night, but the Bluefish would still win the contest 7-3. They've only allowed 4 hits combined through all 9 of those innings. The key to success for New Britain in today's game will be to attack the starting pitchers early, forcing Bridgeport to play from behind throughout both games. The Bees will then not need to worry about trying to gain a lead of their own against a red hot Bluefish bullpen.
