The Bees: New Britain is fresh off a brief 3 game road trip in Lancaster, and are heading back home to begin another 7 game home stand. In last night's game, James Skelton finished a triple shy of the cycle. He hit his 10th home run of the year, which ties a career high for him in a single season. Skelton, along with Jovan Rosa, all brought home the New Britain runs in last night's game.

The Opposition: York is coming in to New Britain Stadium after winning 3 of their last 4 games, including a series victory at home against Long Island. They are undefeated in the month of August, having won both of their games played since the calendar turned. Alonzo Harris is batting .417 through his last 5 games with 3 home runs and 8 RBI, one of those home runs happening this past Sunday at New Britain Stadium.

Starting Pitchers – New Britain: RHP Jonathan Pettibone (1-4, 4.04) | York: LHP Logan Williamson (4-7, 4.53)

Key to the Game – Chase Williamson early: York's bullpen has seen a lot of action in their past series at home against Long Island. In those 3 games, of the 28 total innings pitched, 14 1/3 of them were pitched by the starting pitchers. 8 total relievers were used, some of them making multiple appearances. Look for the Bees to be aggressive early against Williamson, forcing the York coaching staff to turn to their stretched out bullpen, continuing to make them work, giving them the advantage in tonight's game as well as for the rest of the series.

Broadcast: The Bees' Official YouTube Channel (youtube.com/NewBritainBees) and Facebook Live (facebook.com/newbritainbees), starting at 6:20 P.M.
